

Heroes, Allies & Companions

Divide a paper into three parts & title each section:

“Heroes”

“Allies”

“Worthy Companions”

Identify and Draw Artistic representations of people or things for each box.

Heroes are people/things that you look up to and admire for their achievements or ways of being.

Allies are those who have more power than you that you trust or can enlist to help you move toward your goals.

Worthy Companions are peers who are on a similar journey or could be a good support to you in your journey.
